

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and
The National Immunization Program

Resource Guide

National Immunization Hotline

(English) 800-232-2522

(Spanish) 800-232-0233

Talk to a real, live person concerning (1) the location of immunization clinics near you, (2) answers to commonly asked questions about immunization, and (3) ordering single copies of immunization materials from the NIP. The Spanish Hotline provides culturally appropriate language and referral services to callers who have questions about immunization. Spanish materials can also be ordered through this hotline.

E-mail: nipinfo@cdc.gov

Health care providers can use this E-mail address to receive answers to their immunization questions directly from the National Immunization Program, and to request printed material, such as ACIP statements.

National Immunization Program
Resource Request List
888-CDC-FAXX
(888-232-3299)

To receive the most current copy of the National Immunization Program Resource Request list, call 888-232-3299, and request document number 130011, then enter your fax number. You can order all materials available from NIP, including ACIP statements, Vaccine Information Statements, and video tapes. See NIP website for ONLINE ordering.

Public Health Foundation
(877) 252-1200 (toll free)
<http://bookstore.phf.org>

The Public Health Foundation (PHF) is the sole source for several National Immunization Program educational materials, including the 6th edition (2000) of Epidemiology and Prevention of Vaccine-Preventable Diseases (the Pink Book). PHF is also the source for CME/CNE-approved videotapes of NIP satellite programs plus other Centers for Disease Control and Prevention materials.

NIP Home Page

<http://www.cdc.gov/nip/>

- Upcoming Events
- NIP publications can be electronically ordered Online, processed within 48 hours, and delivered free of charge.
- Vaccine Information Statements
- Clinic Assessment Software Application (CASA)
- Frequently Asked Questions
- View or download the current Pink Book chapters and Power Point slide sets.
- Vaccine Safety Information

CDC Home Page

<http://www.cdc.gov/>

- In the News (Announcements, Hot topics, etc)
- Health Information
- Publications, Software, & Products
- Data and Statistics
- Training and Employment
- Electronic MMWR (free subscription by E-mail)
- Electronic Emerging Infectious Disease Journal
- CDC Prevention Guidelines
- ACIP Vaccine Recommendations
- Access to individual program home pages
- Traveler's Health: Online information on recommended vaccines, health information, and recommendations by geographic areas; the most recent "Yellow Book" Health Information for International Travel; and the latest news on international disease outbreaks.

CDC Fax Back System

877-FYI-TRIP

(877-394-8747)

(International Travel Information)

This toll-free number will allow you to receive a faxed directory of materials on vaccinations and other health information for international travel, including malaria prevention. After receiving the directory, call toll-free to 1-888-232-3299, follow the prompts to enter the document number(s) of those materials you want faxed to you.

April 2000